

Thanksgiving is a time to be with your family and to be thankful for what you have. I am thankful for my family, shelter and our community. What are you thankful for?

I am thankful for my family because they care about me. In my family I have my Mom, dad, sister, and brother. My mom wakes me up every morning to get ready for school. My dad works to earn money for all of us. My sister helps me with my homework. My brother buys me things for my birthday and Christmas. They all do kind things for me. This is why I am thankful for my family.

I am also thankful for my shelter because it's my home and I sleep in there and I eat in there. I am very thankful to live in a house that my parents pay to live in. There are a lot of things to do in your house. Everyone should be thankful to live in a house. Houses should be important to everyone because it's where you live and it's a lot of fun. Some even have pools and parks. I am thankful to live in a house.

I am also Thankful for my community because there are schools, homes, super markets, playgrounds, movie theater, library, and restaurants. There are a lot of things to do in our community and maybe there are new things that you didn't know about in your community. You have police around to help out and that's why I am thankful for my community.

In conclusion there are a lot of things to be thankful for. I am thankful for a lot of things like my family, shelter, and our community. Thanksgiving is a time to be with your family and have a good time with them. Make sure you think about what you're thankful for this Thanksgiving.
