

By: Ethan Garcia

Thankful Essay

Thanksgiving is a time to spend time with your family and have fun. There are many things I am thankful for. I am thankful for my family, friends, and education.

One of things I am most appreciative for is my family because they were always there for me when I needed help with school work or anything else that I struggled with. My family would always sacrificed themselves for me. My family always would encourage me to keep doing what I'm doing now. That's why I am most appreciative for my family.

My friends were always there for me. I am filled with gratitude for my friends because they would never let me down. Anytime I had a bad day they would always be there for me and put me up to feel better. I would never let them down, for what they have done for me.

Last but not least, I am grateful for my education. My education will help me graduate, and get a scholarship. Having an education is important because kids in other countries are homeless, poor, no food, and no home they don't have an education to live a happy

I am thankful for so many things. My family, my friends, and my education are so important to me and have made my life what it is today.