Thanksgiving essay

Thanksgiving is a wonderful time of the year where everyone gets to see what you are thankful for. Also you can see what other people are thankful for in life.

The first thing I am thankful for is my baby sister named Sammy Rose Bryde . I am thankful for Sammy because I did not like being an only child but now I am not and I am so happy . Another reason I am thankful for my sister sammy is because I can finally play with her and not have to sit on the rocker because my friend jessie is grounded for 2 weeks.

The second thing I am thankful for is my education because my teacher last year said that I should be thankful for my education and I am sure my teachers this year would totally agree with me in many ways . One reason I am thankful for my education is because my teachers miss mangard , miss gaine, and miss,baker always tell me that some of these things we teach you today are things you'll need in life .

The third thing I am thankful for is phones. I am thankful for phones is because if .I need to call my mom i can call her. So like if i want to stay for after school help or an after school activity i can let her now by call or text

Another thing I am thankful for is my good grades in school. I am thankful for my good grades in school because my teacher mrs.baker helps me get all things that I need for the class I am going to. Another reason I am thankful for my grades is because my mom said that if I don't get good grades i will not get to go to dorney park this summer and really want to go so I am working really hard for something I wanted for a long time.

Also i am thankful for my home. I am thankful for my home because,some people don't have homes ether they are poor or homeless. I really really feel bad about that. The people that are poor or homeless sit on the side of the street and look hungry needing and sad.

In conclusion these are all the things i am thankful for i named all the reasons that i ether feel bad for people or happy that i have something when other people don't .

Thanksgiving is a wonderful time of the year where everyone gets to see what you are thankful for . thankful for in life .
