

By Isabella Mangan poem

What Am I Thankful For?

There is so much to be thankful for how can I choose one

I'm thankful for dance and the giant bun

I'm thankful for my Mom and Dad and all that they do

My brother and sister I'm thankful for them too

I'm thankful for my friends who are really nice

My puppy he's so cute you don't have to tell me twice

My teacher they are a big help

Careful the puppy is about to yelp!

There is so much to be thankful for

What are you thankful for, say the first four
